Numismatical Directory.

We desire to call the attention of Numismatical Societies and Bona-fide Collectors of United States and Foreign Coins, Medals, Tokens, Badges, Metal Cards, etc.; also Colonial Coins, Continental, Colonial and Confederate Paper Money, Bonds, etc., to our Numismatical Directory 1881, now in process of publication, and to be published yearly hereafter.

Send us your names and addresses, also those of your various numismatical friends, the names of Numismatical Societies and Authors, at home or abroad, and we will publish the same in our Directory FREE.

Much other valuable information to dealers and collectors will be given, such as The Mints of the world, a price current of all American Gold, Silver, copper, Tin, Nickel and Bronze Coins; also rare Metal Cards, Mint Marks, etc., making the work indispensable and of general information to all.

To fully accomplish this end, and for that purpose we shall be thankful for literary contributions from any of the fraternity, that the manual may be made as complete as possible.

THE DIRECTORY will be sent post-paid on receipt of One Dollar after notice of publication. All persons desiring copies will please send their subscriptions at once, as but one edition will be published.

THE DIRECTORY will be delivered free of charge to numerous Foreign Libraries, all Numismatical Societies and Mints, of the World, by applying with 20 cents postage or equivalent in Coin. It will be found to be a valuable medium for Foreign Advertising.

Our advertising columns will be open at the low rate of $5.00 per inch double column, or $25.00 for full page. Advertising space 4 X 7 inches.

I will publish under the headings, "COIN DEALERS," or "DEALERS IN FOREIGN STAMPS" the address for $1.00. It will pay you to Advertise.
